Whether you get a buzz from organising every last detail or would like a helping hand to create your vision, we are available to help as much as you'd like.

Room layouts, menus, table plans, decor, entertainment, timings and even the typical order of speeches can all be planned to take away the stress and strain from yourself, your partner, family or friends.

We are here every step of the way to make sure the running of your special day falls into place. We recommend a few short meetings leading up to your big day to produce a check list to make sure that no detail is forgotten.

We would love to meet you and talk through your initial wedding ideas and plans. Just telephone 01283 565938 to make an appointment with us.

From vast and elegant to small and intimate, The Pirelli Stadium offers you the choice of three rooms for your civil ceremony, with decor and layout tailored to you.

The Directors Suite

The Directors Suite is perfect for more intimate ceremonies. In a superb position above the main entrance, a bespoke glass wall floods the room with light to create a bright and beautiful central setting within the stadium.
